St. James's, February 17.

THE following Addreſs of the Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Colony of Nova Cæſarea, or New Jerſey, in America, has been preſented to his Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To his moſt Excellent Majeſty George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Addreſs of the Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Colony of Nova Cæſarea, or New Jerſey, in America, in General Aſſembly convened.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Repreſentatives of your Colony of New Jerſey, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Deliverance of your Kingdoms from the late Attempt of a wicked, abandon'd, popiſh Pretender.

It was with Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence that we heard of a Number of People, in your Majeſty's Dominions, who (void of Underſtanding, and unſenſible of the Bleſſings flowing from your mild and auſpicious Reign) have ſuffered themſelves to be ſo far deluded by our common Enemies, as deſperately to engage in open and publick Rebellion againſt your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, vainly attempting to ſubject a Free People to the miſerable Slavery of a popiſh arbitrary Power.

As our Civil and Religious Principles teach us an Averſion to and Abhorrence of the Superſtition, Idolatry and Tyranny of the Church of Rome; ſo had thoſe Rebels been ſuffer'd to have uſurped the Power of Ruling over your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, we in your Plantations muſt undoubtedly have been ſubjected to their Reſentment; we are therefore under the greateſt Obligations to be thankful unto Almighty God, who, by his good Providence, hath ſo graciouſly interpoſed for the Preſervation of your Royal Perſon and Government.

So happy an Interpoſition, as it gives us this Opportunity, ſo it makes it our indiſpenſible Duty alſo to acknowledge your Majeſty's paternal Care for the Safety of your People, which hath been ſo ſignally demonſtrated in your Majeſty's permitting one of your Royal Off-ſpring to expoſe himſelf for their Preſervation, to the Fury of Men more deſperate, ſavage and unnatural than the Beaſts of our Wilderneſs.

It is a peculiar Happineſs that many of our Fellow-Subjects enjoy, to be near your Royal Perſon, and to partake of the immediate Influence of a Government we feel (in Part) the good Effects of; for which we return your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks, in that you have been moſt graciouſly pleaſed, from Time to Time, to inſtruct thoſe Perſons your Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint to preſide over us to protect us in our Civil and Religious Liberties. This, to us, is a Demonſtration of your Majeſty's Care and tender Regard, and that it is extended even to the remoteſt of your Subjects.

We humbly beſeech Almighty God, who can bring Good out of Evil, to fruſtrate the Councils of your Majeſty's Enemies, and make their wicked Devices ſubſervient to the Eſtabliſhment of your Perſon and Family (if poſſible) more firmly in the Affections of your People: That he may bleſs all your Majeſty's Councils, and grant Succeſs to your Endeavours for the Eſtabliſhing an honourable and laſting Peace in Europe,

[Price Two-pence.]

Europe, and all these your Majesty's Plantations: That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Crown you wear with Ease and Delight, exceeding in Honour your illustrious Ancestors: That when it shall please him to part you from an earthly Diadem, it may be to receive a Crown more permanent and glorious; and that Great Britain, with all your Majesty's Dominions, may be always happy in an uninterrupted Race of your Royal Off-spring reigning on the British Throne.

By Order of the House,
Robert Lawrence, Speaker.

Divers of the Members of this House being of the People called Quakers, agree to the Matter and Substance of this Address, with their usual Exception to the Stile.

The following Address of the Representatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To George the Second, King of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the Representatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE thy dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of the Freemen of Pennsylvania, sensible of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under the mild and gentle Administration of thy Government, beheld, with great Detestation, the unnatural Rebellion, lately contrived and carried on by the Enemies to our happy Constiution, Traytors to their King and Country, who, aided by the unjust and united Force of France and Spain, wickedly attempted to introduce Popery and arbitrary Power, under a popish and bigotted Pretender.

Permit us therefore, Great Prince, in this humble Manner thus to approach thy Presence, heartily to congratulate thee on the Defeat of these treasonable Attempts, and the Suppression of the Rebels, owing, under the Blessing of Providence, to thy Royal and indefatigable Care, and to the Conduct of the magnanimous Duke of Cumberland.

May Almighty God bless the King's Councils, preserve his Royal Person and Family, defeat the Devices of his and our Enemies, and restore Peace to Mankind, are the fervent and sincere Prayers of the King's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of the Freemen of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, the 23d of the Sixth Month, 1746.

Signed by Order of the House,
John Kinsey, Speaker.

Hague, Feb. 17, N. S. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland landed the Day before Yesterday, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Helvoet, after a very happy Passage, and arrived in this Place the same Evening; where he has since been complimented by the Government, and other Persons of the First Rank.

Hague, Feb. 17, N. S. We received this Day an Account that General Brown had repassed the Var with his whole Army, and without any Loss. This Event is attributed to Want of Forage and Provisions, occasioned by tempestuous Weather, which had lasted eight or ten Days, without which Incident, it had been resolved, in several Councils of War, to wait the Enemy upon the Ciagne. Marshal Belleisle likewise march'd back to his former Camp, as soon as he knew of the Austrians drawing off in good Earnest; and has only left some advanced Posts on the Country they abandoned.
